A NEW VIEW OF CONSUMPTION,

And One Which Appeals to Common Sense — [illegible] Curable Cases.

[Medical Stains.]

"Many persons die of Consumption who [illegible] easily be cured," says Dr. S. C. Clark, of [illegible]town, N. Y., "if they would go at it right. [illegible] have a new view of the disease. Consumption is not always of lung origin."

"How so? What is it then?"

"Many cases of consumption are secondary. The disease itself prevails everywhere, but best practitioners refuse to attribute it to inheritance or the weather. If a person [illegible] has any tendency to lung weakness [illegible]

[illegible]

"Is this form of treatment successful?"

"It is wonderfully so, and for that reason I am only too willing that you should announce it to the world of consumptives."

Note by the Publishers.—We have received the above interview from H. H. Warner & Co., Rochester, N. Y., with the request that we publish it for the good of suffering people. In a note to their letter they say:

"The experience of Dr. Clark is not strange. ... We gladly give place to this article, for it is in any way stay the ravages of Consumption, which carries away so many millions yearly, it is our bounden duty so to do.—[PUB.

THE ELECTIONS.

Swift Probably Defeats Bartlett by 500 Plurality.

SEVERAL LEGISLATURES IN DOUBT

More About the Defeat of Morrison in Illinois—Speaker Carlisle Says he is Elected by 500 Majority—Press Comment.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Returns from all the counties including San Francisco up to this morning show that 110,000 out of a total vote of 200,000 have been counted. Of this Swift has 40,636, Bartlett 45,825, Wigginton 4451, O'Donnell 1709, Russell 2806.

Returns from the congressional districts are as follows: First, Garter, rep., 6383; Thompson, dem., 6845. Second, Campbell, 7374; Biggs, [illegible]. Third, McKenna, 5360; McPike, 4901. Fourth, Morrow, 7580; McCoppin, [illegible]. Fifth, Felton, 8075; Sullivan, [illegible]. Sixth, Vandever, 7728; Lynch, 666.

Interior returns indicate that the democrats will have a majority in the legislature on joint ballot.

In this city at 4:30 A. M. the vote for governor was as follows: Bartlett, 10,354; Swift, [illegible]08; Wigginton, 174[illegible]; O'Donnell, [illegible]45; Russell, 11[illegible].

The democrats have elected the mayor and a majority of their municipal ticket.

W. D. English, chairman of the democratic state central committee, this morning stated that he was satisfied that Bartlett would be elected by a majority of from 800 to 1000. John F. Swift said to-night he was elected by from 500 to 700 majority.

LATER RETURNS.

Four hundred precincts not including San Francisco give Swift [illegible]; Bartlett [illegible]; Wigginton [illegible]; Russell [illegible]; O'Donnell [illegible].

Partial returns from every precinct in the city up to noon to-day give the entire vote counted up to that time as 56,[illegible], being more than three-quarters of the entire vote polled. Included in this are forty-three complete precincts. Swift, 12,81[illegible]; Bartlett, 14,194; Wigginton, [illegible]16; O'Donnell, 714.

In the first congressional district the vote as far as counted stands: Thompson, dem., 6058; Garter, rep., 52[illegible]4. In the Second, Biggs, dem., [illegible]40; Campbell, rep., [illegible]01. Third district, McPike, dem., 55[illegible]8; McKenna, rep., [illegible]1,066. In the Fourth, McCoppin, dem. [illegible]; Morrow, rep., [illegible]458. Sixth, [illegible]. In the Fifth, Sullivan, dem., [illegible]; Felton, rep., 8015.

Seventeen thousand and three votes counted in sixty congressional district counties give Lynch, dem., [illegible]; Vandever, rep., 9081. These figures represent about one half of total registered vote.

One hundred and twenty-three thousand four hundred and seventy-three votes, including the San Francisco count, give Swift 53,551; Bartlett 51,[illegible]16; Wigginton 4457; O'Donnell 11,30[illegible]; Russell 443.

Complete returns from eight counties give Swift 12,543; Bartlett 11,[illegible]6; Russell 786; Wigginton 1573; O'Donnell 1076. Two additional counties complete give Bartlett 131 net plurality.

Eleven counties complete give Swift 20,797; Bartlett 19,132; Russell 801; Wigginton 1[illegible]82; O'Donnell 1079. Four additional counties give Swift a net plurality of 225.

Sixteen counties complete give Swift [illegible]; Bartlett 28,403; Russell 860; Wigginton 1784; O'Donnell 1317. Thirteen additional counties give Bartlett a net plurality of 424.

W. D. English, chairman of the democratic state central committee, claims sixteen democratic majority on joint ballot of the legislature.

Eighteen counties complete give Swift 35,884; Bartlett 32,[illegible]2; Russell 1610; Wigginton 2013; O'Donnell [illegible]. Fourteen additional counties give Bartlett a net plurality of 600.

THE LEGISLATURE.

A calculation made up from returns received up to 6 P. M. goes to show that the next legislature will stand as follows: Senate, democrats 27, republicans 13; assembly, democrats [illegible]9, republicans [illegible]; a majority for the democrats on joint ballot of 12.

SWIFT PROBABLY ELECTED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—An estimate made at midnight of the probable result of the vote for governor goes to show that Swift's plurality for the entire state will be 500. The calculation is worked out as follows: Complete returns from eighteen counties outside of San Francisco give Swift 35,[illegible]8; Bartlett 32,622. In eight additional counties Swift has a plurality of 1520. In eight further additional counties Bartlett has a plurality of [illegible]. There remain seventeen counties to be heard from. The calculation on these latter counties is made by deducting [illegible] per cent. from Blaine's majority of 1884 for Swift and leaving Cleveland's majorities intact for Bartlett, except in the case of Mendocino county, where Cleveland's majority has been increased three-fold for Bartlett. Based on this estimate these seventeen counties will give Swift 1[illegible]0 plurality in republican counties, and Bartlett 2240 in democratic counties. This would leave Swift with a total plurality outside of the city of 217. Bartlett's plurality in the city, based on the count up to the latest hour, will be 1710, which would leave Swift with a net plurality in the state of 500.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

PACIFIC COUNTY.

ILWACO, Nov. 3.—Following is the count for Wallacut precinct. The first named candidates are on the regular republican ticket, the second on the union ticket: Bradshaw 103, Voorhees 48; joint councilman, John F. Gowey 118, M. Z. Goodell 30.

Joint representative—Thomas Warmon 91, J. J. M. Vancleave 5.

Prosecuting attorney—George J. Moody 83, F. B. Stone 69.

Auditor—F. B. Wood 149.

Sheriff and assessor—Thomas Roney 75, J. H. Turner [illegible].

Treasurer—J. A. Morehead 80, F. C. Davis —.

Probate judge—Andrew Olsen 111, R. H. Espey 35.

Commissioners—John Hunter 100, G. W. Brown 80, J. W. Goodell 8[illegible], George W. Wilson 56, [illegible] M. Preston [illegible], Alfred Baker [illegible].

School superintendent—Mrs. Addie R. Bowen [illegible], Mrs. A. B. Hicklin [illegible].

Surveyor—Edward Lageis 102, J. A. Whealdon 50.

WHITMAN COUNTY.

COLFAX, Nov. 4.—Delegate: Bradshaw, rep., 183[illegible]; Voorhees, dem., 1032. Prosecuting attorney: Fullerton, rep., 20[illegible]; O'Dell, dem., 2808. Council: [illegible], rep., [illegible]; Barkhuff, dem., 1849. Representatives: Irwin, rep., 204[illegible]; Arrasmith, rep., [illegible]11; Smith, dem., 18[illegible]0; Williams, dem., 1[illegible]35. Auditor: Turner, rep., [illegible]18; Irwin, dem., [illegible]2. Sheriff: Berry, rep., 20[illegible]; McLane, dem., 185[illegible]. Treasurer: Renshaw, rep., 2332; Kennedy, dem., 1[illegible]0. Probate judge: Ruby, rep., [illegible]; Kincaid, dem., 1[illegible]61. To[tal] vote as far as heard from 3820, with three small precincts to hear from, which will not change the result. Republican gain over 1884 [illegible]. The entire county republican ticket is elected.

COWLITZ COUNTY.

KALAMA, W. T., Nov. 4.—Returns from all but two precincts give majorities for the following candidates in Cowlitz county: Voorhees, dem., for delegate, about 150; Thompson, rep., for joint councilman; Mills, rep., for joint representative; C[illegible], dem., for auditor; Holmes, dem., for sheriff; McCarthy, dem., for probate judge; Martin, rep., for treasurer; Lewis, rep., for assessor; Jackson, dem., [illegible], Brock, rep., Millard, dem., for commissioners; Abernethy, rep., for school superintendent; Kyle, dem., for surveyor. For county seat Kalama is ahead, but will probably not have a majority.

The vote of Kalama was 87 for Voorhees and [illegible] for Bradshaw.

THURSTON COUNTY.

OLYMPIA, Nov. 4.—Official vote of Thurston county: Bradshaw [illegible], Voorhees [illegible]; Newell [illegible], [illegible] for councilman [illegible]; Goodell [illegible] for councilman 61; Reed, [illegible] for representative 8[illegible]0; Van Epps, dem. [illegible] representative [illegible]. Majority of this county for Bradshaw for delegate [illegible]; a republican loss of 10. [illegible] republicans 800, democrats [illegible]1. The official count makes little change from the report of the county vote sent yesterday.

CLARKE COUNTY.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 4.—One precinct is yet to hear from. Voorhees now has 49 majority. [illegible] reports indicate the election of Thompson, rep., joint councilman, and Stevens, dem., joint representative; Dustin, dem., for attorney, is ahead [illegible] of Blackfield. The auditor and probate judge [illegible] the [illegible] elected by small majorities. [illegible] the balance of the county ticket is democratic.

[illegible] COUNTY.

In Klickitat county most of the republican county ticket is elected. Bradshaw's majority will be over [illegible]00. W. L. [illegible] [illegible] prosecuting attorney [illegible] [illegible] has 23 majority [illegible] councilman [illegible] [illegible] superintendent M[illegible] Redman [illegible] for prosecuting attorney [illegible] elected has majority. Wm. Van [illegible], dem., for sheriff has [illegible] majority.

KING COUNTY.

SEATTLE, Nov. 4.—The official count of King county will not be completed until to-morrow. Voorhees' majority will not exceed [illegible]. [illegible] Voorhees' majority is [illegible] Bradshaw's majority in the territory at from [illegible]00 to [illegible]00.

SPOKANE COUNTY.

SPOKANE FALLS, Nov. 4.—Spokane Falls gives [illegible] majority with 300 votes [illegible]. Outside precincts give Voorhees a majority of [illegible]0 with three precincts to hear from.

KITTITAS COUNTY.

ELLENSBURG, Nov. 4.—The county is all democratic [illegible] commissioner. Voorhees' [illegible] 90 ahead.

INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 4.—It will take the official count to-day to decide the standing of the legislature. The democrats claim it by [illegible] majority, and the republicans by [illegible]. The News this afternoon publishes a list, not official, giving the republicans 2 majority. There is no change in the congressional delegation. Holman's majority is about [illegible]00.

No positive statement can yet be made about the legislature. Gov. Gray said that at present returns, if continued in the ratio of [illegible] would elect the republican state ticket. It will require the official count to determine whether the republicans or democrats had carried the legislature. The republican state central committee says that basing claims upon returns from more than one-half the counties the republicans will elect the state ticket by 5000. That the legislature is in doubt is conceded. The republicans expect to gain it, and the democrats hold tenaciously to the claim that it will be anti-republican by from two to five majority. The congressional delegation is unchanged since yesterday.

THE STATE REPUBLICAN.

The republican state central committee has official returns from eighty-two of the ninety-two counties in the state which show a republican net gain on the vote of 1884 of 5654. Estimating the other counties on the basis of 1884, this gives the republicans a plurality of the state ticket of 3142. There is no further change in the legislative situation. The committees of both parties insist on their respective claims, the republicans claiming 8[illegible] members and the democrats 80. The legislature consists of 100 members of the house and 50 senators, and Senator Harrison's seat at Washington is the prize to be contested for.

ILLINOIS.

SPRINGER TAKEN TO TASK.

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 4.—Referring to a dispatch to the associated press sent from this city yesterday by Hon. Wm. M. Springer upon the result of the congressional election in this district, his opponent, Maj. James A. Connolly, this evening furnishes the following card for publication:

"Mr. Springer having announced through the associated press that his virtual defeat was caused by money sent into this district from the outside by protectionists, I want to say that one of the notorious facts of the campaign just closed was that my [canvass] was fought without money, while Mr. Springer's workers were abundantly supplied with [it] till the last vote was polled. In the democratic counties of Morgan and Sangamon, where [illegible] and in the democratic [city] of Springfield, where he has lived for twenty years, [illegible] the most. He is the only [illegible] candidate for congress, as I am informed, [illegible] to carry Sangamon county since [illegible] it as a whig forty years ago. [illegible] money was sent [illegible] [illegible] and this attempt of his [illegible] protectionist gold is an [insult] to the independent voters of his district [illegible] honest and open effort to rid themselves of him.

JAMES A. CONNOLLY."

MORRISON'S OPINION OF HIS DEFEAT.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 4.—A Waterloo, Ills., special to the Globe-Democrat says: Col. Wm. R. Morrison, to-night, in response to inquiries as to the causes of his defeat, said: "Jarrett, a tin-plate emissary [illegible] and other protectionists professing to represent the Knights of Labor and other labor interests, were in the district ten or more days just before election, hiring and bribing such as could be hired and bribed, and continued to consolidate in Baker's interest most of the labor element, in proof of which, hiring and bribery, we have Jarrett's letters. While this was going on Baker was declaring for a pure ballot. Mr. Hewitt's interview as telegraphed to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch falsely representing me as standing in the way of tariff reductions, facilitated Jarrett's mission of bribery in the interest of the protectionists. But it is all right, if the blood of the martyrs is still the seed of the church."

To the question whether the result was a surprise, Col. Morrison said:

"I recognized the influences that were at work as I went through the district. I received a great deal of information as to what was going on, but what surprised me was the solidity with which the element that defeated me was handled this time. Heretofore I have had my share of the labor vote of the district. This time it was handled, as I have indicated."

Col. Morrison does not entertain the idea that the cause of tariff reform has received a set back by reason of his defeat, that of Mr. Hurd or Mr. Carlisle's close call. To a question if results would bear that interpretation he replied:

"Oh no, not at all. Our cause is growing right along. We have lost no strength."

To an inquiry whether any sentiment antagonistic toward the administration had had a bearing on the result, Col. Morrison said:

"No, I think not. These are hard times. There is some feeling that the change of administration has not been followed by that effect on business and by such revival of good times as was anticipated. This feeling, what there was of it, produced some apathy among democrats, perhaps, but I did not discover any anti-administration sentiment based upon any specific objection to the course of the president."

OPINION OF GEN. LOGAN.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The Inter Ocean will publish the following to-morrow: Gen. Logan was chatting with a number of friends at the Grand Pacific yesterday and in response to inquiries expressed himself on the results of the elections. In his opinion it was becoming just about as important to elect good mayors for the great cities as it was to elect good governors for the states. Indeed, in many instances the mayor of a great city was called on to exercise much more judgment and nerve than a governor. Frequent riots, mutterings of socialism and anarchism, all these were but arguments for the election of good strong mayors and mayors who are not only amenable to themselves but to a strong united party for their conduct. In his opinion the republican party to-day occupied in every respect the strongest possible position and if it only stands firm and does not waver from its established line of principles the future years will bring to it many more grand victories. Above all things the republican party wants to steer clear of all the isms and [fool] theories that are afloat. It does not want to stoop to inject socialist ideas into its platform to pander to any element, however strong it may appear on the face of the returns, which does not regard the sacredness of life, liberty and property. To abandon a single one of the principles of the republican party would be to commit a great mistake. Let the democratic party pander to all the low elements and socialistic ideas, but let the republicans stand firm on their own platform.

MINNESOTA.

CLOSE CONTEST FOR GOVERNOR.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 4.—Returns all day have been generally favorable to the democrats and the most sanguine republicans are not now claiming the election of McGill as governor by more than 5000, while the democrats are elated and confident that Dr. Ames will be elected by a small majority. Returns are coming in slowly, hundreds of precincts in the state being remote from telegraphic communication. It is quite probable that it may take the official count to decide. In Hennepin county, the home of Dr. Ames, some 1500 ballots for him were thrown out because the word "labor" [illegible] were printed there on. Offsetting this the republicans claim extensive democratic fraud in Ramsey county. Whether McGill is elected or not, the republican state ticket as a whole certainly is, as he ran about 1000 behind the other candidates for state offices.

The Minnesota legislature has 1[illegible]0 members, 4[illegible] senators and 1[illegible]3 representatives. In the last senate there were [illegible] republicans and 11 democrats; in the house [illegible] republicans and 24 democrats. It is impossible to give reliable figures in the composition of the next legislature, but estimates now give [illegible] 40 republicans, 15 democrats; house, [illegible] republicans [illegible] democrats and farmers' alliance, which would give a republican majority of [illegible] on joint ballot.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Returns from all the counties in the state show a plurality for Peckham, dem., for the court of appeals of 56,[illegible]. Outside of New York and Brooklyn there is a republican gain of several thousand over last year, but there is a democratic gain of 529 in the two cities as compared with last year. The prohibition vote shows losses in some counties and small gains in others, leaving the total about the same as last year.

The present congressional delegation from New York stands seventeen republicans and seventeen democrats. The new delegation is made up of nineteen republicans and fifteen democrats. Changes are: Republican gains in the Thirteenth, Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth and Twenty-ninth districts, and democratic gains in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth, and the Nineteenth district is to be contested by Steinbaum.

THE NEW PARTY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The central labor union [illegible] committee met to-night and considered [the question] of forming a permanent political organization. A call will issue soon to all districts [illegible] to a convention which will be held at an early date, and at which it is proposed to form a new party that shall take an active part in the [campaign] of 1888.

MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 4.—Additional returns from the [interior] of the state confirm in a general way last night's statement regarding the [congressional] [results]. All the districts except the Fifth and [illegible] have returned democrats by fair to large majorities. Clardy in the Tenth and Burns are [illegible] nearly one half, but the remainder received nearly, if not quite, the usual democratic majorities. In the Second district, where Mansur [illegible] the democrats ran Mansur as regular [illegible] has about 500 majority. Walker, rep., in the Thirteenth district will have about 1000 [illegible] [majority]. The complexion of the legislature cannot be given nor can the democratic majority on joint ballot [illegible] be stated.

THE NEXT HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Edward McPherson, secretary of the republican congressional committee, makes the following computation from returns received up to 9 o'clock this evening of the political complexion of the house of representatives of the fiftieth congress. Returns as far as received indicate the election of 1[illegible]4 republicans, 15[illegible] democrats, five labor and independent, six doubtful and [illegible] vacancy—3[illegible]5. The doubtful are: one in Illinois, [Ma]rdis; one in Kentucky, Carlisle; one in Ohio, Campbell; and three in Missouri, Clardy, Glover and Mansur. The labor and independents are: One in Florida, Pendleton; one in Indiana, Rush; [one] in Iowa, Anderson; one in Virginia, Hopkins; [one] in Wisconsin, Smith. If the democrats get [all] the doubtful they will have toward the president [illegible] a force similar to that of the [illegible] [distribution] of Presi[dent] [illegible] many dissatisfied democrats voted the labor ticket. Labor, he thinks, will be an organized factor in the political contests of the future, and the labor vote must be taken into serious consideration.

Mr. Phil Thompson, secretary of the democratic committee, says the democrats will have a good working majority in the house.

NEW JERSEY.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 4.—The result as to the legislature is still in doubt. Both the republicans and democrats claim to have a majority on joint ballot. The democratic state committee claims that Green, dem., has between 8000 and 10,000 majority over Howey, rep., for governor. The republicans have twelve senators and the democrats nine. The democrats claim thirty-one out of sixty members of the assembly and the republicans claim the same number. In a number of districts the vote is so close that the result cannot be definitely known until the ballots are counted.

In the Second assembly district of Mercer county Walters, dem., has been elected by two majority, and the republicans will ask the court to order a recount on the ground of alleged fraud. This action will be taken after the board of canvassers meet on Friday. Democrats claim that a recount will give Walters an increased majority.

NEWARK, Nov. 4.—The legislature by the last count has a democratic majority of one on joint ballot without Donal[d], labor assemblyman of Passaic. There will be recounts in Salem, Burlington, the Thirtieth district of Passaic and Second district of Essex county.

KENTUCKY.

THE CONTEST IN CARLISLE'S DISTRICT.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 4.—Nothing definite can be stated in regard to Carlisle's election until the official count is completed. This will begin Friday afternoon. The Times-Star report this morning does not change the outlook, which is considered favorable to Carlisle by a close vote.

CARLISLE SAYS HE IS ELECTED.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 4.—The Courier-Journal received the following to-night:

COVINGTON, Ky., Nov. 4.

I am elected by from 500 to [illegible]00 majority.

JOHN G. CARLISLE.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

CONCORD, Nov. 4.—The election of McKenny, dem., to congress in the First district over [illegible], rep., is conceded by a plurality of about [illegible]0. This is a democratic gain of one member and equally divides the New Hampshire delegation. All but four small towns which in 1884 gave 10[illegible] for Currier, rep., and [illegible] for Dean [illegible] for governor, [give] Sawyer, rep., [illegible]; Cogswell, dem., 3[illegible]041, and Wentworth, pro., and scattering [illegible]. Reckoning the vote of these four towns the same as in 1884, Sawyer lacks 1230 to an election and Cogswell [illegible].

COLORADO.

DENVER, Nov. 4.—There is no change in election matters from this morning, except that returns show that the vote for Reed, dem., and Symes, rep., for congress is very close and it will probably require the official count to determine the result. Reed's prospects are not so bright as this morning. In the lower house of the next general assembly the democrats claim they will have 2[illegible] members out of 4[illegible], which will be an increase of [illegible]. In the senate they claim they will have 8 out [of] [illegible]6, an increase of 6.

FLORIDA.

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 4.—Pendleton, labor candidate in the First Florida district, is not elected, as would appear from estimates made of the composition of the next house of representatives by the secretary of the republican congressional committee. On the contrary, his competitor, Davidson, dem., is re-elected by at least 3000 majority. The legislature is overwhelmingly democratic, thus insuring the election of a democratic senator to succeed Jones.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 4.—From complete returns from all the legislative districts the Sentinel to-night figures that the republicans will have a majority of 56 over all opposition in the legislature on joint ballot, and that they control both the senate and the assembly.

NEBRASKA.

OMAHA, Nov. 4.—The democrats to-night celebrated the election of John A. McShane, first Nebraska democratic congressman, by a big torchlight parade and a reception to the victorious candidate.

WEST VIRGINIA.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 4.—There is no change in the election returns in this Third district. Snyder, dem., is elected by a reduced majority. The whisky element carried the day by electing license.

IDAHO.

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 4.—Returns from Idaho territory, though meager, indicate the election of Dubois, rep., as delegate to congress by a small majority.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—The legislature stands: Senate, 4[illegible] republicans, 15 democrats; house, 160 republicans, [illegible]9 democrats and 1 independent.

NORTH CAROLINA.

RALEIGH, Nov. 4.—The Second district has been carried by the republicans, Abbott, a negro, being elected.

PRESS COMMENT.

OPINION OF THE WORLD.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The World says: "Democratic control of the house is seriously imperiled if not altogether lost, and the question of the reason and responsibility for the change is one that seriously concerns the future of the party. No doubt the disposition of federal offices, and quarrels and disappointments over offices, have contributed to the defeat of several democratic congressmen, but the real reason for the losses in a majority of the cases lies deeper than this. There is no disguising the fact that the country has been greatly disappointed at the comparative failure of the last and present congress to do what was expected of it. Taxes have not been reduced, needed reforms have not been advanced, long-delayed legislation required for the welfare of the country has perished on the files. The people hoped for better things when a democratic administration reinforced the democratic house, but instead of this paralysis and inaction have continued. But [there] are compensations for all losses if it shall [illegible] that the democrats have lost control of the [house], they will at last be in better condition for the next presidential canvass, through being relieved of the responsibility of legislation. [illegible] [may] learn the necessity of union and harmony [illegible] republicans from being critics and grumblers will be compelled to show their hands [illegible] do that to be ousted again in [illegible] 1888."

FROM THE TRIBUNE.

The Tribune says editorially: "What [illegible] among the trade leaders. Speaker Carlisle [illegible] and late Morrison [illegible] veteran, the champion of free trade [illegible] Hurd [illegible] There have been turned out democratic ringleaders [illegible] protection is equally conspicuous [illegible] had been beaten. It does not yet appear whether either party can claim a clear majority [in the] next house. From about a dozen districts [illegible] is either so meager or so conflicting that the claims of earnest workers must be received with some allowance. In several districts the official count will be necessary to determine the result, but probabilities indicated by latest dispatches are that the few members elected distinctively as labor candidates may have the balance of power. The best of it is the crushing democratic losses come just where the free traders and soft money leaders supposed they were strongest, in the South and West. Revolting democratic laborers of this city supported Mr. George, radical free trader, but the revolt of democratic laborers of Kentucky has beaten Carlisle because he was a free trader, and the miners of Illinois have beaten Morrison for the same reason."

FROM THE POST.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The Post, one of the most [illegible] opponents of the workingmen's ticket, says: "[illegible] of the George vote astonished a [illegible]. Thirty thousand was what even the most pessimistic were willing to assign [illegible]. People now know [illegible] what with the boy [illegible] anarchistic and crank vote [illegible] a danger [illegible] [illegible] do to [illegible] or play tricks with. This [illegible] influence [illegible] local politics that there has been since Tweed's time. Tweed [illegible] phenomena. The George [illegible] is not [illegible] passing phenomena. It will [illegible] kind of permanent organization [illegible] a mixture of discontent and delusion [illegible] supposed is as old as civilization. It always has [been] a danger [illegible] where it was strong."

George's chief organizer, John McMahon, says: "We have only begun this movement. We carry the next presidential election in our hands and the election of Hewitt will not avail the united [illegible] next year. We shall carry the city [in] spite of the tricks of politicians. The future is [ours]. Victory is sure to come."

LONDON PRESS COMMENT.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The Times, commenting on the election in New York, says: "It shows that the exponents of anarchy and spoliation have not awakened an instant too soon to the perils of the situation. Both the democratic and republican parties suffered, and the danger is that these losses will tempt the machine to traffic with the promoters of George's candidature to advance and meet the demands of predatory socialism. Enterprising and industrious Americans must look to it lest the appeals of demagogues to half-instructed, restless masses of the large cities should inflict damage upon the public credit and paralyze the productive resources of the country."

The Standard, commenting on the unexpected number of votes cast for Henry George, asks New York what it will do with the fact that one voter in three backs the opinion that the French revolution is about to be repeated in America, and says: "Such polls look as if a great nation was playing with edged tools with a recklessness dangerous for others than [ourselves]."

The Pall Mall Gazette, speaking of the mayoralty contest in New York, says: "The vote for Henry George is by far the most important political event of the day. It is a message of hope from the new world to the old, an unexpected light bursting forth in a dark place. Henry George is visionary, an idealist and utterly impracticable, but were he as mad as a March hare, all the same the votes for him mean a protest against the rule of Mammon and will give an impetus to discussion of the question of the condition of the people throughout the world."

The St. James Gazette says of the vote for George: "It is a significant and unpleasant fact that in the great American city of New York such a large proportion of workingmen are prepared to vote for the gospel of confiscation. The election should cause all respectable Americans to forget the trumpery of party fights and political indifferentism and face the new danger that is threatening the commonwealth."

ENGLAND.

THE SOCIALISTIC MOVEMENT.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Lord Salisbury, replying to a [socialist] request to receive a deputation of unemployed workingmen, writes that the government are deeply sensible of the sufferings of the poor this winter and will consider attentively any ascertained facts laid before them, but in view of recent events he does not think any public advantage would result from his receiving the deputation.

Lord Randolph Churchill, in reply to a similar request, refers them to Lord Salisbury.

The socialist federation has issued a long manifesto saying: "We will not take the responsibility [of] leading unarmed and defenseless people against a powerful body of armed men who are obliged to obey orders which they detest. We therefore call upon citizens who are obliged to submit to force in the city to assert their right of public meeting and petition in Trafalgar square at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of lord mayor's day. We appeal to you not to injure the great cause by riot [and] disorder. Finally, we pledge ourselves to continue the agitation until we obtain for unemployed workmen that recognition of their labor which they have a right to demand."

THE SHROPSHIRE HANDICAP.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The great Shropshire handicap, one mile, was run to-day at Shrewsbury and was won by Sanctuary by a neck, Lord Capell's three-year-old colt Argo second, Lady C. J. Keen's three-year-old filly Dame third. The only other starter was Gen. Owen Williams's six-year-old horse Cohort.

TERRIBLE BOILER EXPLOSION.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The boiler of the steamer Cartagenova at Newcastle exploded to-day while the vessel was being unloaded. Six persons were killed and thirty injured. The force of the explosion carried a body to the top of a lofty warehouse.

SCHEME FOR ANOTHER SUEZ CANAL.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—A Hamburg correspondent hears that a scheme is far advanced for a second Suez canal, to be exclusively English, and that there is an enormous amount of capital at the disposal of the projectors.

CANADA.

TO ESTABLISH STATIONS FOR STOCK.

OTTAWA, Nov. 4.—Sir John Lister Kaye is here, after a trip to the Northwest. He has been inspecting lands along the Canadian Pacific as representative of a syndicate that intends to take up lands along the line of road between Moose Jaw and Calgary to establish boarding stations for Clydesdale draught horses, sheep and cattle. He thinks the soil, grasses and water of that section are excellent for the purpose mentioned.

HEAVY FIRE AT BATTLEFORD.

WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 4.—A dispatch from Battleford, N. W. T., reports that that town is on fire, but that the flames are under control of the mounted police. The town hall, American News establishment and McDonald's and Baker's stores were burned. The Hudson's Bay store was saved.

A BIG FIRE.

CAMPBELLTON, N. B., Nov. 4.—A destructive fire occurred at Dalhousie last night. The best business part of town is in ashes. Twenty-two buildings were consumed. The fire is said to have originated in a tenement over the postoffice. The loss is heavy.

MADE HOMELESS BY FIRE.

SOUTHAMPTON, Ont., Nov. 4.—Fire this morning destroyed two and a half blocks containing fifty buildings. The town has no fire apparatus. Thirty families are homeless and some of them are entirely destitute. Loss, $50,000; insurance, $12,000.

THE BULGARIAN TROUBLE.

NOTES FROM TIRNOVA.

TIRNOVA, Nov. 4.—A meeting of the deputies was called to hear the government's explanation of its negotiation with Zankoff. M. Stambuloff made a statement, which elicited a violent protest from all sections, even Zankoffites repudiating the conditions imposed by Zankoff.

A Bulgarian conspirator against Prince Alexander who escaped to Russia has returned here. He says that the czar received him openly and declared his intention to put an end to English intrigues in Bulgaria.

AN APPEAL TO GLADSTONE.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—One of the Bulgarian ministers has written to the London Times correspondent at Vienna, appealing to Gladstone through the correspondent to again raise his voice on behalf of the independence of Bulgaria.

TO SUPPRESS BRIGANDS.

SOFIA, Nov. 4.—A state of siege has been proclaimed at Philippopolis, for the purpose of suppressing bands of brigands infesting the environs of the city and who are incited by Russian agents to deeds of violence.

THE REGENTS DISHEARTENED.

VIENNA, Nov. 4.—Rumors are growing that the Bulgarian regents are becoming disheartened and that M. Stambuloff is about to retire, paving the way for the accession of Zankoff.

MEXICO.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 4.—It is announced here that Gen. Garcia de la Cadena, the author of the abortive revolutionary plan at Zacatecas, who was recently captured by government troops, is now on the way to this city under a strong guard. El Tiempo, a church paper of influence, urges that the same magnanimity be displayed toward him as the queen of Spain recently showed in the case of the rebel Gen. Villacalpa.

The government has sent Marino Barcena, an eminent engineer, to study the causes of the continued eruptions of the volcano of Colima. Senor Barcena, who was educated abroad, is a man of great scientific attainments, and he will doubtless make an interesting report.

SHOT FOR HIGH TREASON.

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 4.—Newspapers here [have] a report that Gen. Garcia de la Cadena has [been] shot for high treason.

SOUTH AMERICA.

CHANGE OF MINISTRY.

LIMA, [illegible] AYRES, Nov. 4.—It is reported from [Monte]video that four seats in the ministry recently made vacant by the resignations of Senors Herrera, Ortega, Terra and Florez have been accepted by members of the opposition as follows: [illegible] minister, Dr. Ramirez; minister of foreign affairs, Senor Blanco; minister of the treasury, Senor Marquez; and minister of justice, Senor [Z]arrita.

PERU AND THE PANAMA CANAL.

LIMA, Nov. 4.—El Nacion expresses the opinion that it is time to look upon the Panama canal as a work that will be accomplished and to make preparations for the changes it will necessarily bring about in Peru's political and commercial relations with powerful nations beyond the Atlantic.

GERMANY.

MADE SOLELY OF GERMAN MATERIALS.

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—The Prussian, the first subsidized steamer constructed solely of German materials, sailed from Bremerhaven to-day for Sydney, Australia.

REPEATING RIFLES STOLEN.

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—A sensation has been caused here by the stealing of new repeating rifles from the fortress at Wesel. Treachery is suspected.

SPAIN.

THE ARMY BADLY TAINTED.

MADRID, Nov. 4.—Inquiries have elicited the information that three-fourths of the sergeants recently dismissed from the army were members of secret republican societies. Zorilla admits that the dismissal of the sergeants was a serious blow [but] they boast that there are still 10,000 men in the army in their confidence, and that they could at any moment cause an important garrison to declare for the republic.

THE WEST INDIES.

THE DOMINICAN REVOLUTION ENDED.

SAN DOMINGO, Nov. 4.—It is officially announced that the revolution is at an end and that peace has been completely restored in the north [illegible]. The principal leaders in the revolt have sought refuge in Hayti and it is stated that they are desirous of leaving the island.

AFGHANISTAN.

A REGIMENT MASSACRED BY REBELS.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Dispatches from Cabul say that Ghilzais have surprised and annihilated a regiment of Duranis who were going to Cabul. The scene of the murder was Mukhur, seventy miles south of Ghuzni. The insurrection started by the Ghilzai tribe continues to spread.

IRELAND.

DECISION AGAINST LANDLORDS.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Judge Munroe of Dublin has intimated in connection with proposed evictments, that applicants for [evictions] must prove the solvency of the tenants.

Keck's Sure Cure is an infallible remedy for catarrh. Numerous testimonials prove the above.

GENERAL NEWS.

Mangus, the Apache Chief, Jumps from a Train.

HE THEN FIGHTS HIS GUARDS.

Startling Experience of a Telegraph Operator with a White-Robed Lunatic—The "Tribune" Censures the Hanging of Sproule.

DENVER, Nov. 4.—Pueblo special to the News: Mangus Colorow, the Apache chief, in charge of a detachment of colored troops on the way to Florida, attempted to escape near Pueblo this morning. When the train was three miles east of Pueblo and running forty miles an hour, Mangus asked permission to go into the closet, which was granted. As soon as he entered, he locked the door, smashed the glass and leaped through the window.

The train ran nearly a mile before it could be stopped. When it backed up, Mangus was found lying by the side of the track unconscious and badly cut and bruised. Three ribs were broken. He was taken aboard the car and came to his senses and then made a desperate fight. One hand had slipped out of the manacles, leaving them hanging to the other, and he slugged one of the soldiers with it in the face, knocking him down. He then got on the floor, and thence under a seat, struggling with half a dozen soldiers and howling.

The rest of the Apaches set up a roar, but the coach was guarded by a negro with a cocked carbine. For a while bedlam prevailed. Finally Mangus was stretched across two seats with the bell cord wound around him all up his legs and body.

The sudden death Tuesday, at San Maria, of the Spanish interpreter made Mangus sullen, and he took it to heart greatly, which is supposed to have caused his fit of desperation.

AT KANSAS CITY.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 4.—Mangus, head chief of the Chiricahua Apaches, and thirteen bucks and squaws passed through here under guard to-day en route for Marion, Florida. While the party were going through Colorado Mangus jumped through a car window and ran some distance before he was captured. Then he obtained a knife and stabbed himself in half a dozen places, inflicting serious wounds. This morning he attacked his interpreter, striking the man about the head with the shackles on his wrists. During the consequent uproar, the train started, carrying off all the party except the interpreter, who was left behind, and will follow to-night.

AN ALARMING EXPERIENCE.

A Telegraph Operator Kept a Prisoner by a White-Robed Lunatic.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 4.—Peter Kenney, employed as telegraph operator at Ingraham station, on the Pittsburg, Cincinnati & St. Louis railway, had an adventure at an early hour this morning that he will not soon forget. He was engaged at his instrument when he heard a noise as if some one was trying to open the door, but thought nothing of it, nor even looked up from his work until he was startled by a touch on his coat sleeve. He partly turned around, and to his horror saw a tall, gaunt figure dressed in white, with a long knife in his hand, standing directly over him. He cleared the slight railing surrounding his desk at a single bound, but the strange visitor was between him and the door, and he began pleading for his life.

The specter made no move to follow him, except to prevent his escape by the door. As the ghostly creature made no advance, the operator in a measure recovered his self possession and stood on the defensive in the farthest corner of the room.

The apparition then seated itself in Kenney's chair before the telegraph instruments, keeping a close watch on the movements of the operator. They retained the same relative positions for nearly an hour, during which time trains on the railroad approaching that point were brought to a standstill. One or two trains had been stopped for the signal to go ahead. The crew of the first train finally walked up the track to the telegraph office to find out the cause of the delay, when they discovered his predicament and subdued his captor, after a desperate struggle.

It was subsequently learned that the strange visitor resided at Sheridan station, nearly a mile away, and had escaped from his home about midnight.

THE HANGING OF SPROULE.

[T]he New York "Tribune" Believes it was a Judicial Murder.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—A Tribune editorial says: "The hanging of Robert E. Sproule at Victoria, B. C., entails fearful responsibility upon the Canadian government, for evidence in support of the unfortunate man's innocence was so strong as to have convinced the public who were best acquainted with the facts that he was wrongfully convicted. The case of Sproule was one which called for the most careful and thorough review, for evidence obtained since the trial had, in the judgment of thousands, completely upset the case for the prosecution and justified the conclusion that defendant was a victim of a foul conspiracy against his life and property. A strong probability is that an innocent man has been murdered, under forms of law. The whole circumstances are so extraordinary and so suggestive of everything but justice that it is in order to inquire whether a man would have been thus shamefully put to death where there is so much reason to believe he did not merit it had he not been a citizen of the United States."

CALIFORNIA.

SUIT AGAINST A COAL COMPANY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Jacob Morris has commenced suit in the superior court against M. J. McDonald and others to recover $20,000 damages for the death of his son David William Morris. The boy was employed by defendants in their coal mines in Henryville, Coos bay, Or. He was killed by an explosion of gas caused by failure, it is alleged, of defendants to properly ventilate the mine.

MILL COMPANY ORGANIZED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Articles of incorporation of the Shoalwater Bay Mill company have been filed, the object being to carry on a lumber and milling business in Oregon and Washington territory. The capital stock is $150,000, all of which has been subscribed. The trustees are Otis J. Preston, John J. McKinnon, James M. Colman, W. K. McCullough and D. C. W. Hodgkin.

WAGES OF STEVEDORES ADVANCED.

The Pacific Coast Steamship company and the [Oregon] Navigation company have agreed to pay [stevedores] in their employ $3 per day of nine hours' work and 40 cents for overtime. The present rate of wages is 30 cents per hour, day or night, and ten hours' work.

DEATH OF HARRY STANDERWICK.

Harry B. Standerwick, well known in journalistic circles all over the coast, died yesterday at Santa Clara from lung trouble. He was 39 years old and leaves a wife and one child.

KILLED BY A DUMMY.

Stephen Burns, a laborer 55 years old, was struck by a dummy on the Market street cable road last night and received injuries from which he died to-day.

WON BY BELLE R.

The deciding heat of the postponed race between Belle R. and Gleaner at the Bay District track was won by Belle R., time 2:40.

INSPECTING A RAILROAD.

SAN JOSE, Nov. 4.—Yesterday a tour of inspection was made by Senators Fair and Stanford, A. N. Towne, A. C. Bassett, A. E. Davis and L. Fillmore over the narrow gauge railroad to Santa Cruz and its branches. The announcement of its sale will create no surprise.

SPORTING NOTES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Heavy weights, Jack Smith of England, who won the last year's championship of the New York Athletic club, and Billy Dunn, who has successfully encountered Jack Fallon and other good men, fought a prize fight in New Jersey this morning. In the first round Smith got in heavy with his right on his antagonist's left cheek, and partly dazed him. The call of time saved him from further injury. One of the joints of Smith's first finger on the right hand was dislocated. In the second round Dunn became very aggressive. Smith tried an upper cut in return for a blow in the ribs and followed it up by three good ones about the neck. When time was called Smith was doing capital work. Smith opened the third round by swinging his right to Dunn's left eye, bringing first blood. Suddenly Dunn swung his right and landed it directly under his opponent's left ear. Smith fell like a log, knocked completely out. He had not recovered consciousness when time was called, and the purse and battle were awarded to Dunn.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, NOV 5, 1886.

AN HISTORIC ADDRESS.

The address of Hon. Elwood Evans before the association of Indian War Veterans on Wednesday evening was a valuable contribution to the history of an important period in the settlement of the Northwest, and useful in particular as a vindication for history of the conduct of our people throughout that trying time. We labored under great disadvantages from the aspersions of Gen. Wool, who reported that the war was the result of aggressions and brutal outrages perpetrated upon the Indians by the whites; and this he iterated and reiterated in his dispatches to Washington, till the mind of the country was poisoned against us. But, in fact, as all our people knew, and as Mr Evans once more shows, the outbreak of the Indians was not provoked by injustice and outrage at the hands of the whites. The Indians had been treated with kindness and consideration, and no specific acts of injury were alleged even by themselves. The whites were settling the country, and the Indians, apprehensive of the consequences of their steady and rapid encroachment, conceived the idea that by confederated effort throughout Oregon and Washington they could annihilate or expel the intruders. This was the origin of the Indian war. The people, thus attacked, found it necessary to defend themselves, to make their defense effective they organized under the direction of the governors of Oregon and Washington into those bands of volunteers of whom Gen. Wool spoke so bitterly and unjustly in the reports from which Mr Evans made extracts. They carried on the war against the Indians on principles of humanity and solely for defense, they made no reprisals, took no revenges for the unprovoked and atrocious massacres committed by the Indians, and after they had whipped the Indians into submission they accepted the surrender of the remnants of the tribes, executing only a few persons who were known to have originated the revolt or to have participated in the shocking massacres.

Another assumption of Gen. Wool that the purpose of the people was to roll up a mass of "claims" against the government, was equally without foundation, equally unjust. So far were the people from having incited the Indians to war so as to make money out of the government, they fully realized that if all their claims were paid to the full they would get no reimbursement for their actual losses, to say nothing of dangers and hardships; and in fact though they felt that the expenses they were obliged to incur in defending themselves ought to be paid by the government which had failed in its duty to defend them, and which had even added almost unmeasured insult through its highest military representative on the coast, yet they bore with dignity the refusal of the government to do justice to them, and as there had been no mercenary thought in their action but only the stern necessity of defending themselves, they were glad to end the war, take their families back to their homes at the very earliest day they could, and resume the pursuits from which they had been called by the savage outbreak. They had realized to the full the dreadful picture drawn by Fisher Ames. "You are a father, the blood of your sons shall fatten the corn field; you are a mother, the war-whoop shall waken the sleep of the cradle" And they deserved the sympathy and support of the country whose empire they were founding here not the aspersions of its servants, whose duty it was to aid and to defend them.

Perhaps not one-tenth of the present body of our people know anything of this history except in the most loose and indistinct way, and we are glad therefore that Mr Evans has reproduced it. In these days, when everything is so changed from the conditions of pioneer life, when the multiplied forces of social and industrial activity are so largely developed, when peace, plenty and security are among our heritages, as if they had always been our possessions; when means of travel and transport, and rapid transmission of intelligence, are far beyond the dreams of the time of which Mr. Evans has spoken, it is well to recall the fact that these things were not so always, and that it was a labor to found states here not exceeded by that undergone by the pioneers of any part of the American continent. And as the Roman poet, to inspire love of country and to show to posterity what country was worth to them could exclaim: "Tantae molis erat Romanam condere gentem"—"a thing of so great difficulty it was to found the Roman state,"—men who speak as Mr. Evans has spoken may be pardoned not only for a similar sentiment, but justly applauded for it. The present, let it never be forgotten, was and is in the past, and the life of a state is not a thing of detached episodes or of accidental circumstances, but an orderly development of associated and continuous human effort, under guidance of the principles and characteristics that presided over it in the planting and the making

YOUTHFUL CRIMINALS

On the 1st inst Gov Moody granted a pardon to Joseph Russell, a boy of 18, who, in 1884, was convicted of manslaughter in Douglas county and sentenced to a term of seven years in the penitentiary. The crime for which Russell was convicted was the killing of another boy, named Jesse Quine, with a pocket-knife in a fight Quine had called Russell's sister a vile name, an insult which the latter, who was the smaller of the two, undertook to avenge with his fists He was overpowered by superior strength, but managed to take a small knife from his pocket and to use it with such effect that Quine died shortly after The act, which is not to be defended on any ground, was not murder in the ordinary sense, but Russell was tried and sentenced, as stated above In consideration of the circumstances of the killing, of the fact that he had served two years in the penitentiary and had conducted himself well, of the degrading influences of prison life and association upon a boy of his years, and of the necessities of his mother and sisters, Gov Moody set Russell free To the pardon and a letter of good council, the governor added as a personal gift the means of returning to his home in Douglas county

The case of Russell (who was but 16 years old when committed to the penitentiary) is only one of many cases of youthful criminality in this state. A very large proportion of the persons received at the penitentiary are under 21 years of age, while a considerable share are mere children. During the first half of Gov. Moody's term, the years 1883-4, forty boys under 18 years of age were taken to the prison. We have not the figures for the last two years, but know in a general way that the proportion has been maintained. In nearly all these cases the crimes are of the trifling sort which proceed less from vicious purpose than from idleness and vagabondage. The story of one is pretty much like that of all the others—nothing in particular to do, idle associations, love of adventure rather than love of gain, the end theft or petty outrage or more serious crime.

Among the youth of Oregon, especially the class growing up in the towns, there is the lax morality which follows want of occupation The moral element of discipline is lacking in the social and industrial tone of the country Even in our farming communities boys too often grow up without the wholesome experience of regular labor We need forges, factories, systematic industry in a hundred forms not more for the material development of the country than for the moral training of its children.

An editor can seldom be sure that what he writes will get into print as he writes it For example, the introductory sentence of an OREGONIAN article published yesterday read thus "It is shown by the elections that though the relative strength of politics is not much changed since 1874," etc. But the word parties was written where the word "politics" appeared. This was not a very serious mistake, though it made the sentence almost absurd. But it frequently happens that an editor, when he looks over his article in print, finds changes from his "copy" which so pervert his meaning or make his utterance so silly as to shut him up in the silence of mixed disgust and despair.

BIG GAME.

The disappearance of "big game" at the West is the melancholic criticism of our free institutions by the English tourist and other imported pot-hunters that straddle our continent from east to west looking for some big game whose pursuit will be more exciting because more perilous than "seven up" The pensive sportsman who leans upon his rifle and sadly speculates upon the near prospect when the elk, the Rocky mountain sheep, the antelope and the bear will be extinct, ought to come to Oregon, which, unless the habits of the people change, will always be a paradise for persons in search of "big game." The man who disdains to shoot such "small deer" as snipe, duck, grouse and plover, who is wild in his ambition to bag big game, ought to come to Oregon There are no "big horn" sheep on our mountains, there are no antelope, but few elk and no grizzlies, but, nevertheless, Oregon is a land of inexhaustible resources for "big game" From reading our local exchanges we feel satisfied that four hunters out of six who go out in search of grouse or duck will bring home "big game." It is a cold day for sport in Oregon when an enthusiastic hunter doesn't bag his father, his brother, his cousin, his brother in law or his next friend before nightfall He may not always bring home the carcass of a blood relation, but it is a poor day for sport if he does not have at least one of his wife's kin in his bag. The capacity of the average Oregon hunter to bag one of his own family whenever he goes out shooting is so thoroughly established that a hunter that does not shoot at least one of his wife's relations for a deer before he gets back is looked upon with distrust by his neighbors, as rather wanting in the proper spirit of a man, as not fit to be trusted with a gun. There ought to be a new nomenclature for "large game" in Oregon No sportsman of spirit should be content to talk about snipe, grouse, pheasant, geese and ducks, he ought to be able to come in with gay and gallant tread and when asked what luck to answer proudly "One brother in-law, a brace of cousins, I wing-tipped my father and knocked all the tail feathers out of my youngest boy, but they both got away" It must be a chronic grief and ceaseless sorrow to the average Oregon sportsman that as a rule the women of his family neither care to hunt or like to be hunted. Otherwise a man who was fond of big game and wanted a quiet life could invite his mother in-law to go hunting and manage to bag the old lady before sunset. If a man had two strings to his bow he could invite his second-best girl to go hunting, and then, in accordance with the custom and habit of the country, he could shoot her and marry the surviving competitor for his affections. If women only went hunting, how it would simplify the proceedings of the divorce courts in Oregon! Instead of a divorce, with all its disgusting testimony on both sides, there would only be a coroner's inquest. John Jones would testify that he invited his wife, Betsey Jane to go hunting and that in accordance with the custom and habit of the country he mistook his wife for a flock of quail, and hence these tears. Or Miranda could come before the coroner with the body of her Ferdinand hung over her shoulder and say that she and her husband went out hunting together and she mistook her husband for an elk and shot him, and felt it her duty to bring the body of her dead dear into court, and the verdict would be justifiable homicide, on the ground that no person, knowing the passion of the average Oregonian for killing big game, ought ever to go hunting with his most intimate friend

There is no doubt about it, Oregon is the country for "big game" The elk, the mule deer, the blacktail, the bear may become extinct, the clanking cry of the wild goose may no longer be heard, but the game goes will continue to go hunting and bring in "big game" Sometimes he may kill his wife's relations, sometimes rather than come home with an empty bag he may pot his own, sometimes he will kill his neighbor's oldest boy, sometimes, if hard pressed for "big game," he may blow out the brains of his own pet child, and sometimes he may shoot his Winchester over the barn and kill his grandmother. Sometimes, rather than seem to be false to the best traditions of his town and county and omit killing one of his best friends before he returned from a hunting excursion, perhaps he would plant his decoys near the house and ambush his mother in-law or his wife's aunt rather than not bring home some "big game" The "big game" of Oregon will never become extinct, for as long as people marry and are given in marriage there will be reckless, careless creatures in plenty, permitted to carry a gun, who would shoot at every rustling leaf, even if they knew the Savior was behind it, and until hunters learn the art of the old trapper who said he "shot so as to kill if it was a deer and miss if it was a calf," the average Oregon hunter will continue to confound his father, brother, brother-in law, son, cousin or next friend with "big game" and shoot him forthwith. Of course a captious person might object to this method of keeping up the reputation of the wide, wild West as a happy hunting ground, but as long as the friends of the deceased don't seriously object to his being shot as "big game," but rather regard it as a neat and graceful personal compliment, why need the world complain? "Big game" will never become extinct in Oregon as long as big fools are trusted with a gun and encouraged to go hunting Shakespeare in "Henry the Sixth" describes with great power a scene in the battle of Towton, where a son who has killed his father is contrasted with a father who has killed his son This situation is not seldom the outcome of a hunting excursion in Oregon, where father and son are so eager for big game that they shoot at the breeze, hoping to hit a buck

FACTS AND PORTENTS

One James Blaine has been saying at many places during the last three months that the people of the United States were resolved to uphold protective tariff in principle and practice Divers other people now begin to think that Mr James Blaine's opinion is correct. Among them are Mr William Morrison, Mr John Carlisle, Mr Frank Hurd and Mr William Springer. Mr Grover Cleveland also, and many other citizens of the United States are no doubt interested observers of this same fact.

Politicians, statesmen and newspapers may talk about free trade as they will, they may prove how excellent a thing it is in principle and how useful it would be in practice, but it is plain that the people of the United States are not going to see it that way. If they can't answer the argument with words they can answer it with their votes, which, for practical purposes, is the much more effective way

Or even if the reformer of the tariff is a cautious man about the terms he uses and so avoids calling himself a free trader and says he is merely a low tariff man, he is likely to have trouble with the people. He will get on indeed well enough in a locality where no one has anything that he wants protected, and in such localities people will agree with him that protection is nothing better than poorly disguised robbery But just as soon as he enters a district where there are industries of any kind with which foreign products might compete, he is regarded as "an enemy of our struggling industries," and he is left, as Wm. Morrison, Frank Hurd and others are left, to deplore the ignorance or perversity, and meditate on the ingratitude of the masses

The consequence will be that a multitude of democratic statesmen all over the country will now start on a run to get upon Mr James Blaine's platform and this gentleman will be compelled to contend boisterously to keep them from crowding him off it. And Mr Samuel Randall, who has not been allowed for some time to sit at the democratic board, will now be given the head of the table.

Perhaps now the house of representatives will be willing to pass the bill to erect Washington territory into a state. The largely increased majority for Voorhees may satisfy the minds of the brethren that the territory is reliably democratic.

GOSPEL AND PATRIOTISM.

A clerical correspondent of the N. Y Graphic writes from Baltimore as follows.

We have been proud hitherto that our clergy have attended strictly to spiritual duties and kept free from the entanglements of political rings. This made the Episcopal church very popular during the late civil war and caused many of all Protestant bodies—notably the Hon Mr Hendricks, our late Vice-President—to come to us because we preached Christ and his religion and let politics alone.

This correspondent evidently is ignorant of the history of his own church during the civil war In December, 1860, when the secession of South Carolina was imminent, a number of copperheads of New York City addressed a letter to the late Bishop Hopkins, of the Episcopal church, a Northern man of Southern convictions, asking him to give the public his views on the subject of secession Bishop Hopkins complied by issuing a pamphlet in January, 1861, which defended secession and the so-called divine origin of human slavery with a fervor of language that must have entirely satisfied every pro-slavery man from ex President Pierce in New Hampshire, to Bob Toombs, in Georgia. The leaders of the Protestant Episcopal church at the North were justly indignant, and Bishop Potter, of Pennsylvania, promptly answered the pamphlet of Bishop Hopkins, declaring that the vast majority of his church repudiated secession and the so-called "bible view" of slavery, and rebuked Bishop Hopkins for throwing his influence at so critical a time against the Union and the flag Bishop Hopkins replied by issuing a still more elaborate defense of secession and slavery, and expressed his contempt for Bishop Potter by saying that he (Hopkins) would rather be "Apollo in the dust" than be what Potter was—"a Silenus on a pedestal," which remark, considering that Silenus was a drunken old satyr, was worthy of the most vituperative days of the church militant By this time the church of the North had become thoroughly aroused and determined that Bishop Hopkins should be effectually silenced, so the Rev. Dr. Goodwin, one of the ablest and most learned divines of the diocese of Pennsylvania, was requested to answer Bishop Hopkins's book—"Bible View of Slavery" Dr Goodwin consented, and when his reply appeared and people read it there was nothing left of Bishop Hopkins, who had small, superficial learning, whether historical or ecclesiastical, and no logic, while Dr Goodwin had learning, logic, wit, humor, satire, in ample abundance When Goodwin got through with Bishop Hopkins the condition of that perfervid old defender of secession and slavery was such as to be fairly explainable by the following story "Where," inquired the foreman of a gang of men, directly after an explosion, "where is Patrick Maguire?" "Yer honor," said one of the gang, advancing with measured steps, "this is his hat." "But where," insisted the foreman, "is the rest of him?" "Yer honor," was the reply, the speaker pausing long enough to wipe his eyes with his sleeve, "I think he will come down in about two minutes"

The friends of Bishop Hopkins found his hat, but he had lost his head to Dr Goodwin, and the rest of the unfortunate controversialist was sent flying all abroad Bishop Hopkins never replied to Goodwin, he was silent during the remainder of the war, but did not escape further humiliation for when Sherman's soldiers destroyed the college at Marietta, Georgia, they found and brought away its constitution or charter, which was drawn up a number of years before by Bishop Hopkins, and contained, among other provisions, a clause declaring that no man of Northern birth should be eligible to any position among its faculty or trustees.

These facts make it clear that the Episcopal church at the North was not non political during the civil war, the copperhead bishop was the first to fling his hat into the ring and square off for secession and slavery, and Bishop Potter put both his eyes in mourning, and when he entered the ring of controversy the second time Rev. Dr Goodwin knocked him out amid the applause of the great mass of the Episcopal church at the North. "The Hon. Mr Hendricks, our late vice-president," did not go over to the Episcopal church because it "preached Christ and his religion, and let politics alone," but he went over because the minister of the Episcopal church in Indianapolis happened to be what Hendricks was—a thorough going copperhead. who accepted the Bishop Hopkins view of slavery and secession Hendricks would not have gone over to a church society that endorsed Bishop Potter, Dr. Tyng and Dr Goodwin, who stood for the Church North, but he went over to a particular church in Indianapolis because its rector, like Bishop Hopkins, was as furious a defender of slavery and secession at the North as Bishops Polk and Wilmer were at the South

The late Vice-President Hendricks changed his clergyman, but it was not because the Episcopal church let politics, that is patriotism, alone during the war, it was because the only copperhead clergyman he could find happened to be an exception to the vast patriotic majority of the Episcopal church North Nobody took sides any quicker during the war than the churches North and South. The bells of the Episcopal churches rang out "Te Deum laudamus" for Lincoln's proclamation of January 1, 1863, as freely as those of other churches, and they rang again when Richmond fell. Bishop Polk put on his armor at the South and Bishop Wilmer prayed for Jeff Davis, even as did Bishop Hopkins and his pro-slavery recruit the late Vice-President Hendricks Vice-President Hendricks was not looking for a non political church, he was looking for a pulpit that preached the political gospel according to Saint Copperhead he would have accepted any pulpit at that time that preached that gospel, he was not looking for a pulpit without politics, but for a pulpit with his own particular politics and he accepted the first sanctified secessionist and pro-slavery evangelist he could find All the churches in those days sided squarely with their respective sections, and the Episcopal church of the North, in simple justice and honor, be it said, was no exception The clergymen of that church who followed Bishop Hopkins were as exceptional as a white robin, but fortunately for the late Mr Hendricks, he found one of these exceptional clerical copperheads in Indianapolis, so that he did not have to move out of town to find a minister that preached his pet politics of state sovereignty and the divine origin of organized inhumanity in shape of human slavery

The Salem Statesman says that the contest at Gervais—Mitchell and anti-Mitchell—was a contest in which McKinley Mitchell, not Hipple Mitchell, was concerned, and the Statesman gives McKinley Mitchell a very good character differing at all points from that of the man who has debauched the politics of Oregon We thank the Statesman for its correction and yet it is entirely proper to say that the remarks of THE OREGONIAN upon the consequences of Hipple-Mitchell's manipulation of the politics of the state, since they were entirely true, have been true at all times for twenty years, and are still as true as ever, could not be untimely

Among the most astonishing results of the elections of Tuesday is the republican victory in Indiana. The fact that the republicans have a majority in the legislature is the more surprising since the democratic gerrymander of the legislative districts made it doubtful whether the republicans could elect more than one quarter of the members.

Parties Wearing Out.

New York World

Ten years ago such a support as Henry George is now receiving could never have been secured for any man running against personally unexceptionable candidates of the two great parties The demonstration is but another proof of the fact that the old party ties are wearing out. Party discipline no longer keeps the voters in line The people are growing more and more independent.

CONSTRUCTION OF WATER WORKS.

OFFICE OF THE WATER COMMITTEE }
PORTLAND, OREGON October 8, 1886 }

SEALED PROPOSALS FOR THE CONSTRUCTION of works for the water supply of the city of Portland Oregon, will be received at this office until 12 M. December 15th, 1886.

These works will be constructed according to the printed specifications dated August 24th, 1886, and will include thirty one miles of wrought iron pipe, 27 and 24 inches in diameter three iron bridges, two thousand feet of submerged pipe under and across the Willamette river a reservoir within the city limits, and all other works described in the specifications excepting those specified as "Head works," which are now under contract.

The specifications provide that the wrought-iron pipes shall be made of iron sixty inches in width, but proposals will also be received for furnishing the iron, and for manufacturing the entire length of pipe of iron either forty-two, forty-eight, or sixty inches in width.

Proposals will also be received for the construction of all the works described in the specifications, excepting the Head works, for a lump sum, the contractor being at liberty to use iron for the pipes either forty two forty eight, or sixty inches in width, the whole work to be completed within eighteen months after signing the contract.

In these modified forms of proposals the width of iron proposed will be stated in the bids, and a copy of this advertisement will be attached to each bid.

The proposals will be endorsed on the outside of the sealed envelope, "Proposals for Construction of Water Works," and addressed to Philip C. Schuyler, clerk of the Water Committee, Portland, Oregon.

The specifications and such further information as may be required will be furnished on application by

ISAAC W SMITH
Engineer of the Water Committee,
Portland, Oregon.

HORSES FOR THE ENGLISH ARMY.—Mr George DeWolf who lately drove a band of horses across the Crow's Nest pass over the Rockies from British Columbia to the vicinity of Calgarry on the Canadian Pacific reports that at Fort McLeod Col Ravenshill arrived there from England on a tour of inspection and to purchase horses for the English army He, however found very few among the numerous bands of horses in that section which fulfilled his requirements He stated that the English government would purchase about 4000 head of horses yearly if suitable stock could be raised and would pay $150 a head for them halter broke delivered at Montreal. The horses are required to be of good color black or gray preferred, 4 to 6 years old and fifteen to sixteen hands high. The visit of Col. Ravenshill caused quite a stir throughout the "Northwest" and a number of stockmen were making arrangements for breeding horses to fill the requirements There have been a great many horses taken East from this state this summer but probably not many of them would come up to the standard required for the British army A good horse fifteen to sixteen hands high will bring $150 in almost any part of Oregon

CONVICTED OF GRAND LARCENY.—Edward Mutch was tried and convicted in Judge Stearns's court yesterday of the larceny of $180 from Nicholas John. Last October John started here for Cathlamet with several hundred dollars in his pocket and on the way up fell in with Mutch arriving in Portland they proceeded to take in the town and see the elephant in No 1 shape The last night they were together they put up at the Oak house and John on getting out in the morning found that he had been robbed Mutch about the same time redeemed $70 worth of jewelry he had in soak and then skipped to Astoria from which place he was brought back on a warrant from Justice Bushwiler's court Mutch was known to have been in straightened circumstances just previous to meeting John He tried to prove that this was not so and that he had money on deposit with F P O Brien which statement was corroborated It wasn't shown, however that this might not have been money stolen from John The jury was out but five minutes when they came in with a verdict of guilty Mutch has not yet been sentenced

CONVICTED OF PERJURY.—Yesterday James A. Hearing of Linn county was tried in the U S circuit court before Judge Deady and a jury, on a charge of perjury, and convicted In December 1883 Hearing made an affidavit before the clerk of Linn county that he had resided for a certain time upon a government claim near Sweet Home and that he had done a certain amount of slashing He was indicted about two years ago for the crime but the indictment was held as defective A second indictment was found but as congress had not provided an appropriation to pay for a jury in the U S court trial of the case was postponed a year or more On the question as to whether Hearing actually knew the nature of the affidavit he was making there was some doubt in the minds of the jury but the prisoner himself acknowledged on the witness stand that he knew he was testifying to an untruth when he swore that he had made improvements on the place The jury brought in a verdict of guilty with a recommendation for mercy Judge Deady sentenced Hearing to one year in the penitentiary

TO BE TRIED HERE.—Deputy Sheriff Brown has gone to Dayton W T after E T Barnett who is wanted in Portland to answer to a charge of larceny by bailee George DeWolf alleges that he and Barnett brought a band of cattle to British Columbia and sold the same DeWolf gave Barnett $2100 his (DeWolf's) share of the money to keep for him and on arriving at Rathdrum about September 6 last Barnett claimed that the money had been stolen from his saddle bags About that time Barnett left DeWolf and proceeding to Pendleton sent $2100 in Canadian bank notes to the bank of British Columbia in this city ordering the same amount to be exchanged and sent to him to Walla Walla which was done. Barnett has been under arrest in Dayton for ten days but it is very uncertain whether he could be convicted in Washington territory as he converted the money to his own use in this state. So a warrant was issued in Justice Tuttle's court a requisition obtained from Olympia, and served The prisoner will arrive here to-day

LIGHT THE PLAZA BLOCKS.—In view of the fact that Mr Fisher was sandbagged and robbed on the plaza Wednesday evening it would seem advisable that a light should be placed in the center of the plaza blocks at the intersection of the paths One good light at each intersection would light up the whole length of the paths and effectually stop such outrages This attack on Mr Fisher is not the first instance of the kind in that place. A year or two since a similar outrage was committed there The dense shadows cast by the electric lights from the trees and band stands make favorable lurking places for thugs and highwaymen and it is a wonder that more robberies are not committed there Now that the city is to be lighted by electricity the council will do well to consider the propriety of having a light in each plaza block

ALBINA FIRE COMPANY.—Wednesday evening, the Albina fire company No. 1 held their regular meeting at Hill's hall A vacancy being made by the foreman, George Harris moving to Umatilla a new election was held for that office The officers now are as follows C H. Hill, president C Thrift foreman B Emerick first assistant A. Hinkston second assistant L E Sims secretary A committee consisting of A. M. Young S J Fisher and A Hinkston was appointed to procure an engine house at once The company have now a new hose truck and 400 feet of 3 inch rubber hose and good hydrants in the business part of town It is proposed to give a ball and entertainment on Thanksgiving eve to procure funds to furnish an engine house and help pay off the company's debts

NEW ALBINA FERRY.—The new steamer Albina Ferry No 1 is now finished and will be placed on the route from Albina to Stark street on this side and intermediate points She is a catamaran of the style of the steamer Twins, which was formerly on this route, but much larger and more substantially built, with a capacity of accommodating seventy five passengers. The steamer New York will then be withdrawn and Captain Foster will give her a general overhauling in the shape of repairs of which she is sadly in need the boat having run constantly for the last six months without a lay off

SLIGHTLY STINGY.—It has been discovered at last who the meanest merchant in town is. He keeps a big store in the center of the city Several nights ago the special policeman on the beat where his store is located discovered one of the front doors unlocked not an uncommon occurrence Standing guard at the door the policeman called a carriage and sent it to the merchant's residence with a message for him to come down and lock his store He walked down and did so Yesterday the U C & B T Co presented a bill of 50 cents for the carriage hire, and settlement was flatly refused

RELIGIOUS PUBLICATION REVIVED.—The first number of the Oregon and Washington Churchman made its appearance yesterday It starts out as a new enterprise to take the place of the Columbia Churchman suspended It is published by Swope & Taylor who assume all financial risks and all possibility of gain The editors are Rev John W Sellwood of East Portland and Rev Morden D Wilson of Vancouver and the paper will be issued monthly

INSANE.—Elizabeth Chambers a domestic, was examined at the Good Samaritan hospital yesterday for insanity by Drs C C Strong and Hunt C Wilson and subsequently ordered by the county authorities committed to the asylum at Salem Mrs Chambers is a widow 40 years of age The cause of her insanity is organic disease of the brain caused by excessive use of liquor

TO THE PENITENTIARY.—Cecil Beebe was taken to the penitentiary at Salem yesterday by a deputy sheriff Since the time of his arrest Beebe has acted in a stoical manner and refused to say anything about his case either one way or the other choosing rather to accept his punishment and take his chances of serving out his sentence in full less credits or future executive clemency

BRIEF MENTION

DELIBERATE SUICIDE

A Stranger Walks into the City Gun Store Selects a Revolver and Shoots Himself in the Head

At 8 30 last evening as the clerks in the City Gun store No 4 First street were shutting up shop a stranger entered. He said interrogatively "I guess I am too late" Harry Wood one of the clerks said, "No I can wait upon you" The stranger then asked for a 22 caliber revolver Wood told him they were out of that size He said he wanted a 22 as he had some cartridges of that size but if they had none of that size he would take a 32-caliber Wood handed him one and after looking it over he said it would do and asked that it be loaded Wood accordingly filled the chambers with cartridges and handed it to the stranger, who taking it in his hand said "Do you know what I'm going to do?" Almost before the surprised clerk could say no the stranger whirled up the pistol and shot himself in the head, the bullet entering near the top of the right ear He fell across the floor between the counters and never moved The clerk rushed to the police office and gave information of the tragedy Chief Parrish and several officers at once went to the store and took charge of the body Dr A D Bevan arrived a moment later but was not able to render any assistance as the man was dead

No one knew the man who was medium sized and roughly dressed and from the appearance of his hands a laboring man. The coroner took charge of the remains and removed them to the morgue

On the remains being removed to the morgue the clothing of the deceased was searched and letters and papers found denote that his name was Martin McCue The letters bore a recent date and were from Albina and addressed to Martin McCue 68 W Van Buren street, Chicago, Ill and signed "your loving wife, Lena." From their contents it would appear that McCue was a married man with several children who sent his wife and family here from Chicago some months ago and since followed her out

It was learned late last night that McCue came here recently from Chicago and that his wife's parents live at Albina McCue is a horse shoer and run a shop at Albina for several weeks Lately he has been engaged at day work on this side The cause of his killing himself is said to be that he felt discouraged and expressed himself on several occasions as sorry for leaving Chicago where he had a good position

THE EAST SIDE.

A LARGE OWL.

Dr Dav Raffety received by express yesterday one of the largest owls ever seen in this part of the state It was alive and came in a cage made on purpose for it A letter came with it from Charles Wilson the passenger conductor on the O & C Railroad, who has been sick and off duty for several weeks and is now at his ranch at Creswell Lane county trying to recuperate his health. The letter reads as follows

CRESWELL, Nov 2

Dr Dave I send to you by express to-day an owl that has been raising h—l at night around the ranch with the hens and also keeping me awake He would get away with a hen every night. I caught him in a steel trap on top of a pole. I think he is about the largest of the species I ever saw In haste CHARLES WILSON

His owlship will be taken to a taxidermist killed stuffed and mounted when he will be placed in the doctor's museum.

DEPARTURE OF TRAINS.

As many of the citizens of Portland and East Portland seem to be ignorant of the fact that the time for the departure of passenger trains on the O & C railroad has been changed, it may be well to state that the through mail train for California leaves the L-street depot East Portland at 8 15 A M and persons crossing the Stark street ferry at 8 o clock will be in time to procure their tickets The departure of the Albany express from the L street depot is at 4 15 P M as usual.

MOUNT TABOR ITEMS

The new bridge being built across the gulch on Mount Tabor avenue just south of the school house and store is nearing completion Only a little filling at the ends remains to be done to complete the work, and it will be open for travel in less than a week The structure is ninety feet long and twenty two feet above the water The material used is of the best, and the work first class in every respect.

THE WILLAMETTE BAND BALL

The annual ball of the Willamette cornet band which took place at Neppach's hall last night was well attended about forty five couple being present The grand march was called at 9 o clock and dancing continued until an early hour this morning. The music furnished by Prof Parrott's quadrille band of five pieces was excellent and a most enjoyable time was had by all who attended

MUCH ADO ABOUT A SMALL MATTER

UMATILLA AGENCY Nov

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

In your issue of Sunday October 31 you printed a paragraph to the effect that a pow wow had been held here, that the Umatilla Indians, our chiefs braves little chiefs squaws and pappooses—I quote from memory—had accepted the provisions of the bill to take land in severalty and open the balance of the reservation to settlement that a big feast had been held and an all night "dance" had concluded the festivities This paragraph does injustice to the Indians as well as to Inspector Pearsons and myself who have been conducting the negotiations with these Indians because it conveys the impression that an alleged "feast and dance" were the considerations which led the Indians to take the land in severalty The facts are these Inspector Pearsons and myself have held almost daily councils with the Indians for over a week we have carefully explained the provisions of the act of congress in question have set forth the advantages of taking land in severalty have answered as well as we could the objections raised by the Indians to the bill and have been successful in obtaining the consent of a majority of the Indians to the measure but there has been no "feast" and no Indian "dance" Many of the Indians who attended the councils came a long distance and were without food or shelter We supplied the needy ones with food and shelter as was required by the common dictates of humanity On Friday last the Indians decided to accept the provisions of the bill Everybody was pleased at their decision Before the signing of names was completed a rain set in and the night approached Those who lived at a distance and had brought their children could not well return home in the darkness and rain. We offered them the schoolhouse for a shelter but there was not sleeping room for all A compromise was then effected by which the babies were put to sleep in one room, a pair of fiddles secured and the other room turned into a dancing hall where the young folks danced quadrilles in the most approved American style till morning and I doubt if a more respectable and orderly country dance than this was ever seen in Oregon. There was no liquor no confusion and no noise except the sound of the violins and the voice of the gentleman who called out the various figures of the quadrilles I give you these facts lest an erroneous impression reflecting unjustly upon Inspector Pearsons and myself in regard to this so-called "feast" and "dance" should go abroad uncontradicted. Yours respectfully,

WM. PARSONS,
U. S. Special Indian Agent.

They Call upon the President and De Lesseps Delivers an Address

WASHINGTON Nov 4—The French guests called at the state department this morning and with Chief Clerk Brown proceeded to the White house where they were presented to the President by Count Sala charge d'affaires of the French legation De Lesseps on behalf of the visitors delivered an eloquent address which was responded to by the president in appropriate terms The address delivered by Count de Lesseps was as follows Mr President I have the honor in my capacity as president of the Franco-American committee to offer you the respectful homage of the French delegates who have come to take part in the ceremonies attending the inauguration of the statue of Liberty Enlightening the World I am deputed to tell you in their name, that they do not desire to leave the United States on their return to France without having paid their respects, at his residence the White house to the chief magistrate of the great American nation from which they have received during their stay here so many evidences of most lively and sincere sympathy Among these evidences none could have been more striking than your presence in New York on the day when the statue of the great French artist Bartholdi was unveiled The lofty language to which you gave expression on the occasion of imposing solemnity of October 28 touched us deeply being destined to cement the long standing friendship of our two nations. It has been received by our fellow citizens in France with a sentiment of satisfaction of which I am happy to be the interpreter Personally we shall all carry with us from America together with remembrance of the kindness with which you have honored us and the examples of liberty under the law, in the midst of the most marvelous activity of which we have been witnesses, a feeling that our mission has tended to draw closer the bonds which unite the two great republics Be pleased Mr President, to accept our heartiest wishes for yourself and family and for the prosperity and greatness of the people of the United States"

The president replied as follows "I am most pleased to receive those who represent the people of France on the interesting occasion to which you have referred I hope the significance of the visit will be fully appreciated by the people of both nations and that the visible tangible sign of friendship which we have seen permanently placed will be a constant reminder of the duty we all owe to assist in the maintenance of the most cordial relations between our two countries so honorably connected in the past and which have so many common purposes and interests

LABOR TROUBLES SETTLED BY AGREEMENT

PHILADELPHIA Nov 4—An important conference was held this afternoon between the members of the old committee of the Philadelphia Manufacturers association and the general executive board of the Knights of Labor by which the Frankford troubles are practically settled The Knights of Labor were represented by General Master Workman Powderly and Messrs Hayes Aylesworth and Carlton of the general executive board while nearly all the members of the association committee were present on behalf of the manufacturers As a result of the conference the following statement was given out

At a meeting of the old committee of the Philadelphia Manufacturers' association and the general executive board of the Knights of Labor the latter withdraw all their grievances of the strikers at the Throth mill with the exception of that relating to the question of wages which will be referred to arbitration This was agreed to by the old committee This practically settles the difficulty at Throth's mill It was also agreed that the general executive board of the Knights of Labor shall act in connection with a set of rules which shall govern them in the settlement of all further difficulties between employes and employers to the end of hereafter preventing strikes and lockouts

ANOTHER GENERAL STRIKE THREATENED

CHICAGO Nov 4.—The strike at the stock yards took a new and perhaps serious turn to-night. To-morrow will probably decide whether or not there is to be a collapse or a protracted and more general struggle The result depends upon the action taken to-morrow by Armour & Co's butchers on the mandate issued to-night by Master Workman Butler K of L. This evening in the different assembly meetings an order was read from Master Workman Butler calling out Armour's beef men to-morrow It is asserted by many that Armour's men will disregard the order and stay at work Their refusal to obey would make them liable to expulsion from the Knights of Labor It would however doubtless settle the strike there being little question that in such event the employes of Morris & Swift would at once apply to be taken back Should Armour's men obey the order to quit it is conceded that another general strike of all classes of labor at the stock yards is almost inevitable

ALDERMAN MCCABE ADJUDGED INSANE.

NEW YORK Nov 4—The trial of ex Alderman Francis McCabe, to ascertain the question of his sanity began this afternoon in the court of general sessions McCabe is one of the boodle aldermen charged with accepting a bribe in connection with the Broadway railway franchise His counsel put in a plea of insanity

When McCabe was arraigned for trial in court to-day he appeared very much worried. He was accompanied by his wife A little time was occupied in obtaining a jury McCabe's counsel stated that his client was suffering from paresis the result of injury to the head some time ago

Dr Hammond insanity expert, testified that his examination of McCabe in the Ludlow street jail on two occasions had resulted in the discovery of several symptoms of insanity usually considered infallible, although he thought his malady was in the way of dementia and not liable to make the patient dangerous Indeed he would soon become an imbecile and he thought he could be better cared for by his family than in a public institution

A number of other experts gave similar testimony The district attorney expressed himself as satisfied that the prisoner was insane and the jury brought in a verdict to that effect. McCabe was then taken to the Ludlow street jail.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS—Past 24 hours: 8 54 ctls wheat, 808 bbls flour, 857 ctls oats including 643 for San Francisco, 209 ctls barley, 5355 lbs hides, 25 cs eggs, 1800 lbs hops, 9 cs butter, 506 bxs fruit, 29 cs dried do, 178 sheep. Also from the eastern section 19,733 ctls wheat, 550 bbls flour, 1000 lbs wool, 3470 lbs hides, 954 sks flaxseed, 20 cattle, 60 hogs.

FREIGHTS—Arrivals for a week have been Abeona, iron, and Edinburgh, wood, seeking, and Andes, Earl Wemyss, Rothesay Bay, Ardvar and Staffordshire with prior charters. Sailings were Auckland, Reaper, River Ganges and Archer with wheat. The only business to be reported on spot is the charter of the Parthia by Balfour, Guthrie & Co., but it is currently stated that several bottoms have been taken to arrive. Of those recently placed on the en route list it is believed the larger number were taken up to arrive. Spot vessels held such high views that some shippers turned their attention to vessels a month off, and chartered at something less than spot demanded. Iron is nominally 40s for orders, but the most of those in port have held higher views until the close. Tonnage loading is well provided for in the way of cargo stuff. The Noddleburn passed out Monday and the Famenoth to-day.

WHEAT—Receipts for the week 2938 tons valley and 6018 tons Walla Walla, against 1899 and 10,959 tons the same week last year and 1803 and 8047 tons the preceding week this year. The increased receipt of valley is due to the arrival of a small cargo of west side to go into ship now at hand. The wheat was bought some time ago. Aside from this the receipt of valley is light and includes much from the narrow gauge lines. Walla Walla comes forward rather sparingly. The October export movement foreign was a large one. Our market has undergone very little change in the week, although at one time much lower prices were spoken of and two large shippers were named as out of the field temporarily. Holders maintained their views, so that no wheat changed hands at the lower range of bids. We are reported valley sales at $1 21 and Walla Walla at $1 15, and these figures appear to be correct quotations at the close. As a rule sellers want more and buyers bid lower, but there is nothing on which to base different quotations. Had shippers not gone outside for new tonnage but contented themselves with spot and paid the rates demanded the wheat market locally must have suffered or business been greatly restricted. While there seems to be no pressing need for wheat there is an expressed willingness to buy against tonnage arrivals later on in the month. Holders offer rather sparingly in the face of easy advices, seeming to have no little confidence in the future. Chicago and New York are a shade below prices of a week ago, and had the American visible statement shown the usual increase they must have gone even lower. This statement showed an increase of only about 750,000 bushels against the anticipation of nearly 2,000,000. San Francisco has fallen away 2½c during the week and closes easy. The situation abroad really develops little new. British farmers are delivering lightly and import statements show that stocks are steadily being drawn upon. These are now believed to be something like 2,250,000 qrs of wheat and flour against 3,500,000 a year ago. France continues to be a liberal buyer, although her crop is claimed to be larger than given in first reports.

MILLSTUFF—Fair local request, and stocks are not at all large. Shipments to San Francisco are again noted. Jobbing values are: Bran $14@15, chop $22@24, shorts $17. Ground barley $24 and oil meal $32 50. No middlings in stock.

POTATOES—Not much doing, and there are few buyers. Sales are usually at 80c without regard to variety. The shipping market offers no attraction. Sweets 1¾c.

ONIONS—Buyers have taken freely at 85c@$1 per cental. The request from the interior is very good.

GREEN FRUIT—Apples continue in large movement and large quantities go into Montana and Idaho. San Francisco continues to take some. For apples dealers continue to pay 40@60c as to quality. Stocks here rule large and include much of poor quality. This is hard to dispose of. Quinces will bring 60@90c readily. Grapes in light request, at 65@85c. California lemons are quoted $6 and Sicily $10 50, with light stocks.

POULTRY—Chickens close weaker and dull under larger offerings, but the quotation of $2@3 50 is not changed, although $3 is oftener the extreme. Ducks in larger receipt and quoted $3@4. Geese dull at $6@7. Turkeys in small trading at 8@10c.

EGGS—The market has ruled firm at 30c all week, supplies of local being steadily light. Arrivals of Eastern have been free, and when in good condition have sold readily. Future prices hinge upon receipts.

BUTTER—Dealers obtaining 60c per roll for choice dairy. Good grades selling at 22½@25c per pound. There is a good supply of common roll and of fair solid, the range being 15@22½c.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Government bonds were dull and steady. The general tenor of news received upon the street to-day was favorable for higher prices for stocks, and the general disposition of the street is in that direction. The only adverse influences were decreases in the net earnings shown by Granger roads, and reports of labor troubles in the West. The opening was generally heavy, although changes from last evening's final prices were generally for insignificant fractions only. The market closed heavy.

SAN FRANCISCO MINING STOCKS REPORT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.

The market opened strong in the informal session, with Consolidated Virginia 37½c, Ophir 35c and Best & Belcher 15c higher. On regular call prices shaded for most stocks, Consolidated Virginia and Best & Belcher being the exceptions. In the afternoon board a general advance set in with a good demand. The news from Savage is favorable, the 800-foot level showing a better formation. In Best & Belcher the 600-foot level shows no ore in first cross-cut. A new cross-cut will soon be started near the Consolidated California line and about the 15th the 800-foot level will be ready for cross-cutting. From Consolidated California & Virginia little can be learned, the mine having been closed to outsiders. The impression is gaining ground that the development on the 1400-foot level is important. After the board news from Consolidated California and Ophir was very favorable and all stocks went higher, Consolidated California closing $10, Ophir $5 25, Best & Belcher $2 20 and Alta $1 10.

GOV. SPRAGUE'S WIVES.

Wife No. 2 Publishes a Letter Severely Criticising Wife No. 1.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 25.—Canonchet, the celebrated villa of Gov. Sprague, at Narragansett Pier, has again been heard from. The fact that Mrs. Inez Sprague, the present wife of the war governor, bought Canonchet after the death of Frank D. Moulton, and that a Col. George W. Wheaton, of Cincinnati, has spent two years at the Sprague mansion, appearing in public with Mrs. Governor Sprague and Mrs. Willie Sprague, wife of the governor's only son and who is a sister of the governor's wife, occasioned no little comment. The gossips were further astounded when on Saturday Col. Wheaton announced that he held a mortgage on the entire Canonchet estate, and being about to foreclose it wanted to sell the property. To-day this announcement is supplemented by the following emphatic letter from Mrs. Sprague No. 2:

"To the Public: Since Catharine Chase has been agitating the removal of her father's body, she has beguiled the interim by entertaining reporters with reminiscences and shadowing forth her charms, assuring the public that she married Gov. Sprague to further her father's political interests, thus martyring herself on the altar of Mammon. A recent article in a Philadelphia paper has been extensively quoted, purporting to have been an interview with Mrs. Sprague, but which, emanating from the same source as the rest, has demanded in justice to truth and decency a denial in detail. By her own confession purity, refinement and all the other instincts of womanhood were wasted and blighted when she sold herself to Gov. Sprague. Treachery and deceit were the parents of disloyalty and disunion, from which naturally issues treason and continual spite. I have felt ever kindly towards her, for her actions have given me the love of the noblest and grandest of men, and I would only ask her to hesitate ere she brings into connection with her name what belongs wholly and entirely to another. I do not object to her regaling her friends by expatiating on her personal attractions if she permits her fondness for the antique to carry her to such lengths, neither do I object to her reveling in past conquests, if she can find listeners, but I demand that she does not refer to my husband in any form whatever. We extend to her our unlimited pity which she ever and will always command. INEZ SPRAGUE."

SIMONY.

To "own a church living" in England means merely to have the power of appointment. To sell a living when already vacant by death or resignation is a crime known as simony, but to sell it to the highest bidder during the life of an incumbent is not simony in law, and it is a common practice for a lord who owns a living to sell it in this way. Lord Lonsdale describes it as follows to a New York paper:

Why, instead of supporting a number of livings, a man with enough of them might almost be supported by them. There's a very odd twist in the law about this; I have right to bargain away a vacancy before it occurs, but if an incumbent should die or resign, it would be criminal to sell the privilege of presentation or appointment. Anybody who bought the place under such circumstances would be guilty of simony. Now and then a prospective vacancy is put up at auction by some holder of appointments who gets short. It seems rather odd, you know, to hear an auctioneer running on about the health of the present incumbent, insuring the would-be buyers that the Rev. So-and so is old and infirm, and that the clergyman who secures the privilege of succeeding So-and-so will not have to wait long. Here's a curious thing that sometimes happens: Suppose Lord A. has four sons; the first succeeds to his father's estate and titles, so he's all right; the second, maybe, is put into parliament with the idea of getting to be a cabinet officer; the third goes into the army, the fourth into the church. Now suppose that when the fourth is 10 years old the very best curacy in Lord A.'s patronage becomes vacant; it's a desirable place for the prospective cleric, but if once filled, he must wait till the incumbent's death before appointing another. So Lord A. finds some young cleric who is under obligations to him; might be the tutor of the elder sons, you know, in the 'varsity, and says to him: "Here, I will give you the benefit of this living if you will agree to resign it when my son is ready to take orders." The young cleric agrees, and the bargain is made, the cleric even giving bonds that he will resign at the stated time. No, that is not simony, and is perfectly legal.

Catarrh in the Head

Originates in scrofulous taint in the blood. Hence the proper method by which to cure Catarrh is to PURIFY THE BLOOD. Its many disagreeable symptoms, and the danger of developing into bronchitis or that terribly fatal disease, consumption, are entirely removed by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which cures catarrh by purifying the blood and also tones up the system and greatly improves the general health of those who take it. Be sure to get

Hood's Sarsaparilla

"I suffered three years with catarrh, and my general health was poor in consequence. When I took Hood's Sarsaparilla I found I had the right remedy. The catarrh is yielding, as Hood's Sarsaparilla is cleansing my blood, and the general tone of my system is improving." FRANK WASHBURN, Rochester, N. Y.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has helped me more for catarrh and impure blood than anything else I ever used." A. BALM, Syracuse, N. Y.

Cures Catarrh

"I had catarrh nine years, and suffered terribly with it. Soon after I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla the catarrh troubled me less, and after taking three bottles I was entirely cured." JANE HINEY, Lamberton, Clinton County, Ohio.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for catarrh and think it has done me a great deal of good. I recommend it to all within my reach. Hood's Sarsaparilla has been worth everything to me." LUTHER D. ROBBINS, East Thompson, Ct.

Testimony of Rev. J. T. Huff:

TURNER STATION, Or., Aug. 27, 1886.

To "THE SARSFIELD REMEDIES CO."—I most heartily endorse Sarsfield's Remedies, and am desirous that my endorsement shall be placed where it will do the most good to suffering humanity. Have had a happy experience in connection with these remedies. When first I was induced to try them my friends thought I would not live three months. Now I am well and hearty; I weigh 212 pounds; am stronger and in better health than I have had for twelve years. I had tried many doctors and many other remedies, and all had failed to cure. I thank God for his kind providence that he led me to you and your wonderful remedies. I would recommend all who are suffering from Blood Poisoning of any description to try Sarsfield's Remedy for the Blood and his Ulcer Salve.

Since the astonishing change it has wrought in my condition I have witnessed the effect of the remedies upon others, and it has given the best of satisfaction. Wishing the Sarsfield Remedies Co. success commensurate with the merit of their remedies,

I am yours truly REV. J. T. HUFF.

BLACK WOLF.

Or Black Leprosy, is a disease which is considered incurable, but it has yielded to the curative properties of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC—now known all over the world as S. S. S. Mrs. Bailey of West Somerville, Mass., near Boston, was attacked several years ago with this hideous black eruption, and was treated by the best medical talent, who could only say that the disease was a species of and consequently incurable. It is impossible to describe her sufferings. Her body from the crown of her head to the soles of her feet was a mass of decay, masses of flesh rotting off and leaving great cavities. Her fingers festered and three or four nails dropped off at one time. Her limbs contracted by the fearful ulceration, and for several years she did not leave her bed. Her weight was reduced from 125 to 60 lbs. Perhaps some faint idea of her condition can be gleaned from the fact that three pounds of Cosmoline or ointment were used per week in dressing her sores. Finally the physicians acknowledged their defeat by this Black Wolf, and commended the sufferer to her all-wise Creator.

Her husband hearing wonderful reports of the use of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC (S. S. S.) prevailed on her to try it as a last resort. She began its use under protest, but soon found that her system was being relieved of the poison, as the sores assumed a red and healthy color, as though the blood was becoming pure and active. Mrs. Bailey continued the S. S. S. until last February; every sore was healed; she discarded chair and crutches, and was for the first time in twelve years a well woman. Her husband, Mr. C. A. Bailey, is in business at 17½ Blackstone Street, Boston, and will take pleasure in giving the details of this wonderful cure. Send to us for Treatise of Blood and Skin Diseases, mailed free.

TESTIMONIALS.

A CARD.

For years I have been physically wretched from asthma, catarrh and bronchitis, from which my unremitting efforts, involving a large expenditure of money, failed to procure any relief until I placed myself under the care of Dr. H. J. Smith, corner Second and Morrison Sts., who in a short time has so nearly cured me that I can attend to all my duties with perfect ease and comfort.

HENRY HARBER,
Foreman Hogue's Mill.

EAST PORTLAND, Oct. 30, 1886.

The following is from the Hon. N. Pierce, well known in Eastern Oregon:

A CARD.

MILTON, Or., Sept. 25, 1885.

A sense of duty to those who may be similarly afflicted prompts me to make the following statement: My son Henry, aged 14 years, was almost entirely deaf since quite a child, and having failed to obtain any help for him, I applied to Dr. H. J. Smith, of San Francisco, who pronounced his case one of Catarrhal Deafness, and said he could cure his Catarrh and improve his hearing at least one-half. He has only been under the doctor's treatment (at home) a short time, and I find his hearing completely restored and Catarrh nearly cured. N. PIERCE.

MILTON, Or., Sept. 29, 1886.—I take pleasure in stating that, after the lapse of one year, I find my boy, Henry's, condition better than stated in my testimonial of one year ago.

N. PIERCE.

To those suffering from BLOOD, NERVOUS or other Chronic Diseases, we would say that it is not our custom to resort to a tedious effusion of trite matter, to excite your fears in order to deplete your purse, but will simply say that we have made a thorough study of this class of diseases, and can cure you in the speediest and most scientific manner possible.

HOME TREATMENT.

Those who cannot attend our office may be given a course of treatment at home, under our direction. If you cannot call, address us, enclosing stamp, and give a full description of your symptoms.
